University of Perpetual Help System Laguna (UPHSL) Strengthens Academic Collaborations Through MOU. In a significant stride towards fostering educational excellence, the University of Perpetual Help System Laguna (UPHSL) has formalized a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with esteemed partner academic institutions. Rooted in the spirit of collaboration, this MOU sets the stage for multifaceted engagements aimed at elevating the quality of education and facilitating holistic development.

The signing ceremony was initiated, resonating with a sense of unity, while a heartfelt prayer and hymn underscored the atmosphere. Dr. Ferdinand Somido, Executive School Director of UPHSL, welcomed participants, setting the tone for an impactful event. Esteemed academic leaders, including Dr. Rolando A. Entila of Laguna Northwestern College, Sr. Ma. Ananita Borbon of St. Bridget College, Dr. Venus Agustin and Atty. Jun Maglangit of the International Peace Leadership College shared messages of purpose and collaboration.

Dr. Josefa Carillo, Director for International and External Affairs at UPHSL concluded the event and emphasized the transformative potential of this partnership. This MOU marks the beginning of a journey towards educational enhancement and shared progress, underscoring UPHSL's commitment to nurturing a holistic, collaborative, and globally impactful learning environment.
